

Embracing Differences

Discussion Points 2

A group of your friends are all going to be online at a certain time but when you ask your parents- they say it is your family time and you can speak to them tomorrow....

What do you think about what has been said?

---

---

---

---

---

---

Someone makes a comment about someone else on your bus. They say how weird and strange they are because they have two mums and don't have a dad...

What do you think about what has been said?

---

---

---

---

---

---

You are talking to someone about recent events. Someone says, "Why is it only Black Lives Matter? Surely it should be all lives matter?"

What do you think about what has been said?

---

---

---

---

---

---

You are walking home and see a group of kids laughing at a girl in a hijab. They call her names and tell her to leave their country...

What do you think about what has been said?

---

---

---

---

---

---