

Friday 21st January

Use your understanding of sarcophagi from the reading challenge, to design a sarcophagus.

You will need to make sure you think carefully about your design because your English work today is to use your explaining skills to write why you made certain design choices.

*We have focused a lot on your explaining skills in class so please make sure you are clear in your explanations.

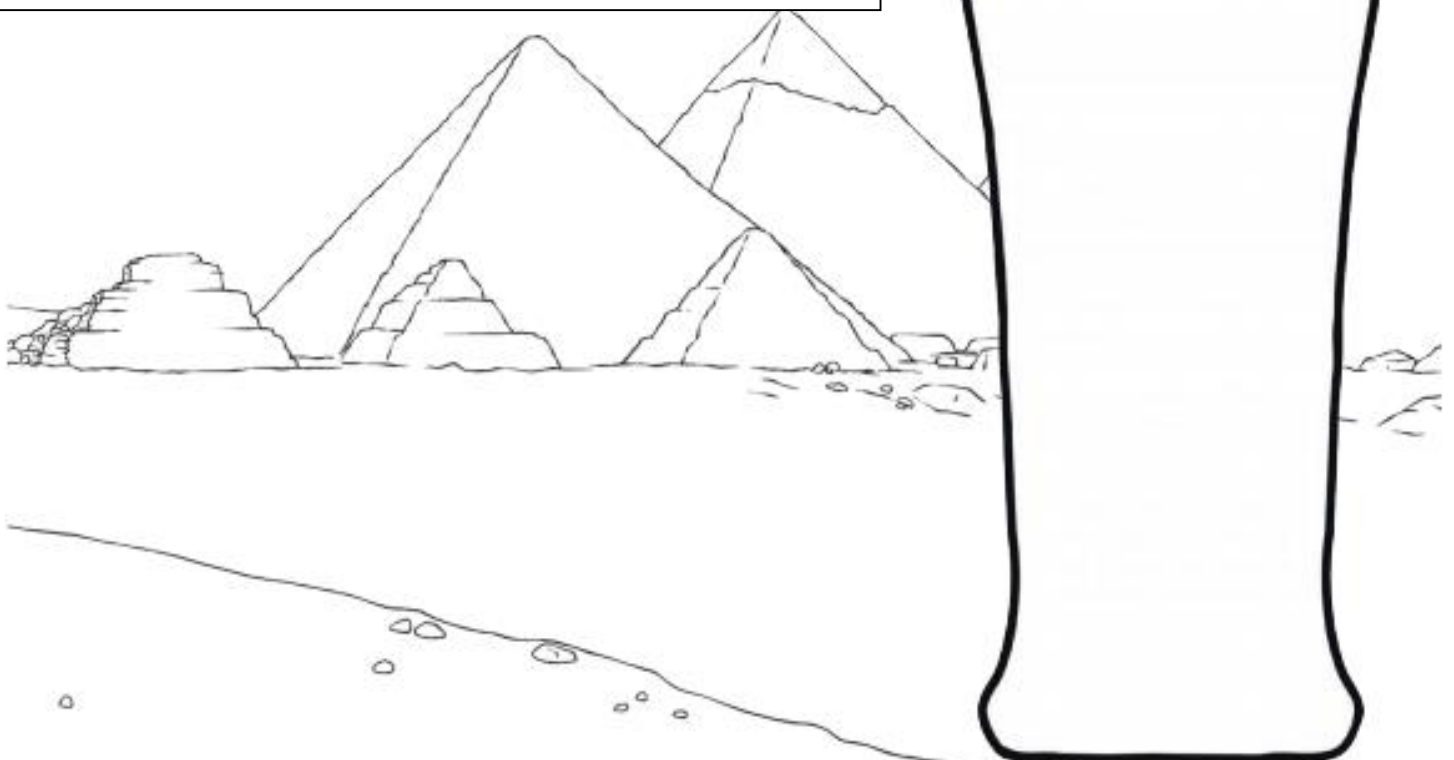

Above are hieroglyphics. You could use these on your design. There are more clear pictures of these on your reading page about sarcophagi.

If you wanted yours to be 3D, you could try to make one instead but you would still need to use your explaining skills.

Example of the start of your explanation:
